Circular No. 553—P. S.

To

All Drawing Officers.

Re:—Incomplete address of payees in the Bills for supplies made or services rendered to Government Departments, sent to the Audit Office for arranging payment.

It has been noticed that some of the above bills relating to private firms or parties received from the Departments for arranging payment do not contain the full postal address of the payees. Consequently intimations sent by post to such of those payees as are living in Bangalore, to take delivery of the cheques at the Pay Section, as also cheques sent by registered post to mofussil firms have been returned by the Post Office undelivered for want of sufficient address. In the absence of complete address such undelivered cheques will have to be forwarded to the
